Budget S. No. 833 Amending the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 to provide for more effective evaluation of the fiscal requirements of the executive agencies of the Government of the United States.

Comments from Senate Report No. 295:

The primary purpose of the bill is to provide the Congress with the necessary tools with which to exercise adequate controls over the expenditure of public funds by the executive branch of the Government.

The major provisions of S. No. 833:

1. Establishment of a Joint Committee on the Budget.
2. Committee would be required to inform itself on all aspects of the annual budget of the agencies of the Government, to examine expenditure reports, and to investigate the details of Federal operations in order that Appropriations Committees might be provided with detailed information concerning each item in the budget and the justifications therefor.
3. The Comptroller General of the United States is directed at the request of the Chairman of the joint committee, to make such investigations and reports with respect to any agency as will enable the joint committee to give adequate consideration to items relating to the agency indicated.
4. The General Accounting Office is authorized to make specific investigations and reports . . . with a view to providing information on budget items and justifications.
